

Comparison/Contrast Essay – What is the relationship between these two stories and what is suggested by their differences?

Thesis: While both of these stories are similar, they both take a different approach to addressing a common human condition.

